CIA Praised: Sen. Milton R. Young, North Dakota Republican, gave Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) agents an accolade after a tour of CIA posts in 14 countries. "Their work is far more effective than the public generally gives them credit for. Their results are better than those of the Russian KGB, the Soviet counterpart, even though the Russians have more than twice as many personnel." Senator Young made the tour as a member of a special Senate subcommittee appointed to examine the CIA's budget. The budget total is kept secret by hiding its components in the budgets of other Federal agencies and departments.
